

2006 Broadhurst Award Winners

November 1, 2006

Each year, Christian Care Communities honors outstanding staff members and volunteers who have made special contributions to the fulfillment of Christian Care's mission. The 2006 Broadhurst Award Winners are named as follows:

William A. Broadhurst Employee of the Year Award

Ms. Terri Reinscheld, Activity Director, Louisville Campus, 18 years of service.

Mr. Ronald Moore, Maintenance Director, Hopkinsville Campus, 29 years of service.

This award honors an employee who, through many years of service and personal example, reflects the philosophy and mission of Christian Care Communities.

Daniel D. Gilbert Employee Servant Leadership Award

Ms. Mary Scarbrough, Certified Nurse Aide, Christian Health Center, Bowling Green, 10 years of service.

This award honors a front-line employee who demonstrates servant leadership.

A. B. Stockhoff Award

Ms. Charlotte Tharp, Vice Chair of the Christian Care Board of Directors, Chair of the Development Committee, and Vice Chair of the Board's Executive Committee.

This award honors a board member who has provided visionary leadership that has advanced Christian Care's mission.

Farris Clifton Award

Derby City Custom Cycle Shop of Louisville.

This award honors a group of volunteers who have contributed to the cause of Christian Care's programs through ongoing or outreach activities that raise community awareness.

November 1, 2006
Page 2

Henry & Ruth Lowe Award

Mr. Timothy Dexter of Danville.

This award is for a volunteer who has made significant contributions to a cause benefiting young people.

J. S. Hilton Award

The Rev. Jerry Zehr and The Rev. Diane Zehr, Co-Pastors of Florence Christian Church.

This award honors a volunteer who has provided leadership in a fundraising effort.

Pauline A. Crawford Award

Mrs. Abby Lipsey, resident of Chapel House, Louisville Campus.

This award honors a volunteer who works “behind-the-scenes” to advance the goals and mission of Christian Care.

Pathways to Dreams Award

Mr. Jeffery Dalton and Mrs. Debbie Dalton, Home Provider for Pathways of Central Kentucky.

This award is named for a program within Christian Care Communities that makes Pathways to Dreams possible for individuals with developmental disabilities. This award honors providers who have opened up their hearts, homes, and lives.

We congratulate and thank these most deserving men and women for the gifts of time, generous spirit, skills, and funds, which they have contributed to Christian Care’s ministries. May God continue to bless each of them and their wonderful work in support of Christian Care Communities.