Northern Kentucky Businesses and Organizations to Tee off in First “Fairways to Pathways Classic” in Support of Christian Care Communities

Tournament to benefit individuals with developmental disabilities

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY (May 12, 2006) – Summit Hills Country Club will be the site of the first “Fairways to Pathways Classic” on Monday, June 13 to benefit Christian Care Communities.

Teams from Northern Kentucky corporations, businesses, organizations and the community will compete against one another during shotgun golf play, beginning at 1 p.m. Golfers will be teeing off in support of Christian Care’s Pathways Northern Kentucky Program, which offers individuals with developmental disabilities community alternatives to institutional care.

For more information on participating in the Fairways to Pathways Classic, contact Jamie Campbell at Christian Care Communities at (859) 663-5139 or (502) 254-4256.

Christian Care Communities is the largest, not-for-profit provider of social services in Kentucky, serving the physical and emotional needs of older adults, children and families and individuals with developmental disabilities or acquired brain injuries. Headquartered in Louisville, Christian Care employs 900 associates who support programs in 20 locations throughout Kentucky.
